

THE DEPLORABLE CERTIFICATES
OF

Mrs. Wandesford

AND OTHERS.

The Original of these to be Produced if Required.

1697
THESE are to Certify all whom it may concern, that Lieutenant James Mallory, and Mary his Wife, and Elizabeth Mallory, and James Holmes, all of the Kingdom of Ireland, came voluntary before me one of His Majesties Justices of the Peace for the City of Westminster, and made Oath, that Garret Foulks, Esq; late Husband of the Pititioner Elizabeth Wandesford, dyed of the Wounds he received in his Nephew Colonel Foulks's Regiment, at the Battle of Agbrim in Ireland, after his releasement from the Prison of Gallaway, where he before lay sixteen Months under sentence of Death, for taking up Arms in defence of this Government: And they farther make Oath, that Anthony Mallory, brother to the said Elizabeth Wandesford, was Kil'd in the same Regiment at the Battle of Agbrim, and another Brother Paul Mallory was also Kil'd in the same Regiment, at the Castle of Ballengarry, and another Brother Kil'd upon a party that was going with Relief to the Castle of Ballibooly, which was held out by her Unkle Sr. Richard Aldworth till he dyed, and Elizabeth Wandesford made Oath, that her Brother Richard Mallory a Clergy-man dyed through the means, as he in his sickness still told her, of a Fall which he got from his Horse going to meet His Majesty, at his first Landing in the West; by the Bruise of which he lay a considerable time in a very Languishing condition, spitting Blood, and at last dyed: And Elizabeth Mallory, Mother to the above mentioned unfortunate Gentlemen, farther maketh Oath That she and her Sister with several Children were Fired out of their Houses, and Murther of all their Worldly substance, and after stript Naked; with the Terrour and Could of which, her Sister and Child dyed in the Fields, and that she and several poor Orphans which she lately brought with her here, has no Earthly support, besides what her Daughter Wandesford, out of her Natural affection, and beyond Her ability, having a Charge of Children of her own, does for them all; which besides the Loss of several Brothers in Law, and other near Relations together with their whole Fortunes, they make Affidavid to be true. Given under my Hand,

Jur' die tertio Martij
Cor' me, 1697.
T. Railton.

Elizabeth Mallory.
Elizabeth Wandesford.
James Holmes.
Mary Mallory.
James Mallory.

WE do hereby Certify, that upon Mrs. Foulks applying her self to Her Majesty, after the Loss of her Husband and five Brothers in Their Majesties service; it was Her Majesties Desire and particular Order to us, at our first coming into this Kingdom, That notwithstanding any stop put to other Pentions, hers of two hundred Pounds a Year should be well paid, and continued to her, till Their Majesties see fit to give her something in lieu of it, in considerations of her sufferings: Incompliance thereof with Her Majesties Commands, and to prevent any Scruples, or Difficulty, she should for the future meet with on that account. We Certify this to be Her Majesties Pleasure, and express Commands to us. Given at Their Majesties Castle of Dublin the 30th of June, 1693.

Sydney.

DEPLOABLE CERTIFICATES

OF

Mrs. Wandesford

AND OTHERS

The Original of these to be Produced if Required

Deporable Certificates
OF
Mrs. Wandesford
and others

These are to Certify all whom it may concern, that Lieutenant James Maffey, and Mary Maffey, and Elizabeth Maffey, and James Maffey, all of the Kingdom of Ireland, came voluntarily before me one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Westmeath, and made Oath, that James Maffey, Esq; late Husband of the Prisoner, and of the Wounds he received in his Nephew Colonel Paul Maffey's Regiment, at the Battle of the Boyne, after his resignation from the Title of Gallant, which he bore, lay in the Hospital of St. Vincent, for taking up Arms in defence of the Government; that the said James Maffey, brother to the said Elizabeth Maffey, was also killed in the same Regiment, at the Battle of the Boyne, and another Brother killed upon a party that was going to the Relief of the Castle of Ballinacorney, which was held out by Sir John Maffey, and Elizabeth Maffey made Oath, that her Brother William Maffey, Esq; died through the means, as he in his sickness still told her, of a Fall which his Horse going to meet his Majesty, at his first Landing in the West, by the Bridge of a considerable time in a very languishing condition, spinning Blood, and at last expired. That the said James Maffey, and her Sister with several Children were fired out of their House, and all their worldly substance, and after their flight, with the Terror and Confusion of Sister and Child, died in the Field, and that she and several poor Orphans which she left with her here, has no earthly support, besides what her Daughter Wandesford, out of natural affection, and beyond her ability, having a Charge of Children of her own, does all, which besides the Loss of several Brothers in Law, and other near Relations, and their whole Fortunes, they make Affidavit to be true. Given under my Hand

Elizabeth Maffey.
Elizabeth Wandesford.
James Maffey.
Mary Maffey.
James Maffey.

T. Rafter.
Cor. mag. 1697.
Just. de pace (Maffey)

We do hereby Certify, that upon Mrs. Maffey applying her self to Her Majesty's Justice of the Peace, and five Brothers in their Majesty's service; it was Her Majesty's Desire and particular Order to me, as one first coming into this Kingdom, that notwithstanding any stop put to other Persons, hers of two hundred Pounds Year should be well paid, and continued to her, till their Majesty's let fit to give her something in lieu of it, in consideration of her sufferings; Incommodities thereof with Her Majesty's Commands, and to prevent any examples, or Difficulties, she should for the future meet with on that account. We Certify this to be Her Majesty's Pleasure, and express Commands to us. Given at Their Majesty's Castle of Dublin the 20th of May 1697.

249

11